

Short Biography of prospective new SCAHC Board Member, Melodie Novak:

Melodie Novak has lived in Sussex County for 43 years where she and her husband raised four children. Her career as a middle school language arts teacher included experiences in various areas of special education inclusion, English as a second language, and team building. Active in her church community she serves as an Eucharistic minister there and at Newton Hospital. For some years, Melodie has also served on the SCAHC arts-regrant committee. Her hobbies include knitting, reading, painting, and traveling.